DEFINITION

Under direction of the Regional Bookstore Supervisor, purchase all non-text merchandise, including giftware and clothing, sold through the bookstore for all District campuses; follow District policies and guidelines to purchase quantity items and services economically and efficiently; research sources of supply, interview prospective vendors and purchase non-text items; maintain non-text purchase and inventory control records.

EXAMPLE OF DUTIES

1. Select, order and coordinate presentation of all non-text merchandise; interview prospective vendors and review product lines.

2. Establish and maintain inventory control system for all lines of merchandise; maintain proper level of inventory to maximize sales while minimizing inventory carrying cost; maintain dollar control on inventory.

3. Prepare purchase orders; process all receiving documents and invoices incidental to receipt of all non-text merchandise.

4. Plan and implement changes in store layout, emphasis and display; assure the proper balance of non-text merchandise at each bookstore location.

5. Screen open purchase orders and partial shipments; contact vendors for orders which have not been received, items received in error, duplicate shipments, due dates for out of stock notifications.

6. Notify instructors of receipt of requested items or out of stock items; meet with requisitioning departments and advise and assist in determining most appropriate solutions to needs; advise District staff on purchasing requirements and procedures.

7. Maintain current active file and record of vendors; evaluate delivery response time, quality of services, discount schedules, invoice procedures and dependability; maintain records of appropriate sources of supply.

8. Act for Location Operator when absent; assist Textbook Buyer as needed.

9. Train and provide work direction to temporary and/or hourly buyer assistants as assigned.

10. Review trade publications and journals; assure current technical knowledge; interview sales people and vendors regarding purchases and bids.

11. Perform related duties as assigned.
DESIRABLE QUALIFICATIONS

Knowledge:
- Purchasing principles and practices.
- Retail store inventory control processes and systems.
- Modern marketing.
- Methods and procedures used in the purchase of college bookstore non-text items, including giftware and clothing.
- Modern business practices, procedures and equipment.
- Record-keeping techniques.
- Oral, reading and written communications skills.
- Aspects of field of specialty.

Skills and Abilities:
- Effectively purchase a variety of non-text items, including giftware and clothing.
- Experiment and innovate with new items/lines.
- Learn and interpret laws, rules and regulations affecting public procurement in a community college.
- Establish and maintain effective inventory control system.
- Understand and follow oral and written directions.
- Communicate effectively with others both orally and in writing.
- Establish and maintain effective working relationships with others.
- Maintain records and data bases.
- Make arithmetic calculations quickly and accurately.
- Type at 45 words per minute.
- Operate office equipment such as a 10-key calculator, typewriter, computer, and copier.

Training and Experience:
- Any combination of training and experience equivalent to: graduation from high school and one year experience as a junior buyer or buyer's assistant.

License:
- Valid California driver's license.

WORKING CONDITIONS

Physical Requirements:
- Category III

Environment:
- Favorable, usually involves an office.